

HOW HOLY ROSARY CHURCH WILL BE BLESSED TO-DAY.

Phenomenal Growth of a Communion Under the Ministry of Dr. Wall.
Five Years Ago He Took Charge of a Small Flock,
Which Now Comprises 5,000 Souls.

Holy Rosary Church and Its Pastor.

To-day the new church of the Holy Rosary, in East One Hundred and Nineteenth street, will be solemnly blessed by the Most Rev. Archbishop Corrigan, with appropriate services.

The rapid growth of the parish of this church is most remarkable. The present rector, the Rev. F. H. Wall, began his ministry here about five years ago. His congregation then only consisted of six hundred people. To-day he is the ordained pastor of a congregation of five thousand souls.

Dr. Wall during his pastorate has succeeded with the co-operation of his people to wipe out a heavy debt, and at one of the services the mortgage was burned. This new edifice was built upon the site where the old wooden structure once stood. It is constructed of brick and Indiana limestone, and is of Romanesque style throughout, having a frontage of ninety feet. Its altars are of the finest marble, and the decorations of the latest pattern. The communion of the Holy Rosary dates back to the year 1884, the first mass being said in October of that year. Its first pastor was the Rev. Joseph Byron, who died five years ago after a lingering illness. He was succeeded by the present rector, Dr. Wall, who has not only accomplished wonderful things in the way of building up the parish, but after five years of the most arduous labors, has succeeded in the realization of his life's ideal—to provide a spacious and beautiful sanctuary.

PASTOR BUILDS HIS OWN CHURCH.

Wields a Hammer and Saw on the Two-Story Worshipping Place.

The church which the Rev. Edwin Dingman, of North Bergen, N. J., started to build, helping with his own hands, two months ago, is nearly completed. It is on Gillespie avenue, west of the Hudson boulevard, in North Bergen. From neighboring villages and towns people flock daily to see the minister at work, sometimes standing for hours watching him drive nail after nail into the beams and woodwork. Pastor Dingman had on a pair of overalls and was very busy yesterday. "With the aid of the residents of the lower section of the town I last Spring started a mission," he said. "We held services for a while in the rooms of the North Hudson Wheelmen. On April 20, we moved to a building at No. 38 Gillespie avenue, and while there we organized the St. Anthony Evangelical Lutheran Church. There were twenty members in all. We purchased two lots on the 25th of September and broke ground on the 24 of October.

"The corner-stone of the church was laid on October 17. I purchased lumber, and other materials, partly at my own expense, and began to build at once. If you look about the place you can see how near it is completed."

The minister then begged to be excused, as he had a great deal to do, and then went off to another part of the building and began hammering harder than before, as if trying to make up for lost time.

The church is a two-story frame structure with a little belfry and steeple. It has a seating capacity of three hundred. Over a hundred and sixty persons in the neighborhood have promised to become members. In a Sunday school there are eighty-nine children.

HISTORIC ANNIVERSARY.

Services to Celebrate the Ninth Year of St. James's M. E. Church To-Day.

The sixty-ninth anniversary of the historic St. James's Methodist Episcopal Church, Madison avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, will be celebrated in the church today with a series of six services. The Rev. Ezra Squier Tipple, D. D., who is the pastor, will be assisted by the Rt. Rev. John F. Hurst, Rev. George H. Jones, D. D., Rev. J. E. Price, D. D., and George A. Warburton. A love feast service will open the series at 3:30 o'clock. Bishop Hurst will preach at the 10 o'clock service. The afternoon services will begin with a celebration of the sacrament at 4 o'clock, closing with a service of remembrance at 8 o'clock when an address will be given by the Rev. Dr. Price on the subject, "Old Friends and Old Triumphs."

CHURCHES FORCED OUT BY NEW BRIDGE

Will Be Razed to Make Way for Williamsburg Approach.

The first move for the erection of a new Episcopal church to take the place of St. Mark's, at South Fifth street and Bedford avenue, Williamsburg, has been made in an application by the rector, church wardens and the vestrymen of St. Mark's Church for permission to assume a mortgage for $135,000 on land which the church society has purchased at Eastern Parkway and Brooklyn avenue.

The present St. Mark's Church, which for more than half a century has been known as the Ivy-Covered Church of Williamsburg, probably will be torn down soon to make room for the new East River Bridge. The new site on Eastern Parkway is part of a plot which belongs to the Eastern Parkway Company, and on which William M. Evans holds a mortgage of $72,248. The church assumes part of the mortgage to the extent of $135,000, the purchase price being $135,000. At present, regret is being manifested at the prospect of the Church Society moving from a section of Williamsburg, where it has been for many years, to an entirely new section of the borough. The site, however, is one of the loveliest in the whole of Brooklyn, and affords a magnificent view of miles around. No one will regret the change of location more than the Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Haslins, who for sixty years, or ever since the Church Society was organized, has presided over its spiritual deliberations. So rapidly is the work progressing on the new bridge that the Church Society found it necessary to get to work on the new church. The edifice, which will cost at least $200,000, will be one of the most beautiful in the Prospect section of Brooklyn. While the society expects to lose more than half of its members, the loss will be offset by the remission of membership in the Church Society of those persons who moved to that part of Brooklyn several years ago.

St. Mark's present church is not the only one which is doomed to destruction. The Central Methodist Episcopal Church, in South Fifth street, near Driggs avenue, and the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, at Driggs avenue and South Fifth street, also are destined to go. Only recently the trustees of the Central Church accepted the offer of the East River Bridge Commission of $60,000 for the church property and the parsonage. A committee from that church now is at work looking for a suitable site. An effort is being made to locate in the new central part of the lower section of Williamsburg.

The Emmanuel Church Society seems to be unable to make any progress. For at least two years efforts have been made to get another church, but nothing ever has been accomplished. There was talk some time ago that the church might get the Temple Beth-El, in Keap street, near Division avenue. The congregation of the Temple Beth-El, however, has unity with the congregation Beth-Israel, Bedford and Lafayette avenues, but both societies still are worshipping in their respective temples. Beth-El's trustees ask a higher figure for their church property than any church society in moderate circumstances, such as the Emanuel or the Central Church, care to give.

Rev. Francis H. Wall, D. D., is an energetic pastor as well as an eloquent preacher and lecturer. He was born in New York and educated at the public schools and afterwards at St. Francis Xavier's, in West Sixteenth street, where he graduated in 1872. Here he taught for one year and then went to the American College in Rome, Italy.

A year later he was elected to the viceroyship of the American College. He remained in this position for two years, when he returned to New York City in 1880.

In April, 1892, Dr. Wall was selected to take charge of the Church of the Lady of the Holy Rosary. The reverend has three assistants, who are not only faithful, but efficient, the Rev. W. G. Murphy, the Rev. Patrick J. Minogue and the Rev. Edward J. Tierney.

The Bible School at the Hanson Place Baptist Church is now larger than ever before in its history. This morning Pastor A. C. Dixon will preach on "Christ for the World," and in the evening he will preach on "The Kingdom of God is Within You." The subject of his sermon this morning is "Salvation or Can a Man be Saved Who Does Not Believe in the Divinity of Christ? This will be the first in a series on "Starting Questions in Theology and Practical Life."

At the Temple Emanuel, Fifth avenue and Forty-third street, Rev. Dr. Joseph Silverman will lecture at 10 a. m. on "Hypocrisy in Religion." Dr. Madison C. Peters, of the Bloomingdale Church, Broadway and Sixty-eighth street, will take for the subject of his sermon this morning "Salvation." His evening theme will be "Deborah, the Ancient Forerunner of the Modern New Woman."

The services conducted by Dr. Madison C. Peters, chaplain of the Ninth Regiment, in the Armory on Fourteenth street, near Sixth avenue, will be held every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Dr. Peters's subject today will be "Dancing Wild Oats," an earnest talk with fast young men.

At St. Alphonsus's Church the first mass on Christmas morning will be celebrated by Rev. James Boston, C. S. B. In December 18 there will be a banquet and entertainment in the church basement.

President Hall, of Union Seminary, is the preacher at the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church this morning. The Rev. W. S. Richardson will preach in the evening.

On next Wednesday evening at the Central Church, on West Forty-second street, "Uncle Ben's" subject will be an illustrated lecture on "The Winning of the West."

The Rev. D. A. MacMurray has been pastor of the Morningstar Baptist Church for seven years. It is a church which has been a center of activity with twenty-seven members, has increased to a membership of one hundred and ninety, and affords a magnificent view of miles around. No one will regret the change of location more than the Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Haslins, who for sixty years, or ever since the Church Society was organized, has presided over its spiritual deliberations. So rapidly is the work progressing on the new bridge that the Church Society found it necessary to get to work on the new church. The edifice, which will cost at least $200,000, will be one of the most beautiful in the Prospect section of Brooklyn. While the society expects to lose more than half of its members, the loss will be offset by the remission of membership in the Church Society of those persons who moved to that part of Brooklyn several years ago.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Columbian Church, at 1120 A. street, will be on the program which will be given in January for the benefit of the poor of the parish.

The Rev. Henry A. Brann, pastor of St. Agnes's Church (Catholic), will begin to-day a course of lectures which will continue during the Sundays of Advent at 2:30 p. m. and 8 p. m., and evening prayer and sermon at 8 p. m.

"Is Heaven for All?" will be the subject of the sermon by Dr. Robert Bruce Smith in the Riverside Baptist Church, Amsterdam avenue and Ninety-second street. This morning's sermon will be "God's Love." A Winterland entertainment will be given by the children at 7:15 p. m., Thursday, December 14.
